XY London moves to 3 St. James's Square

Independent data intelligence on the rise in wealth management

London, June 2, 2016 - XY, an international group specialized in strategic consulting and the control of large estates, has increased its UK presence with a move to new prestigious offices in London. As a result of a robust and rising demand for its unique services granting transparency and accountability in wealth management, XY London has relocated from Mayfair to offices in Westminster, at 3 St. James's Square.

"XY offers independent data intelligence to estate owners, bringing them the wealth of real-time, fact-based knowledge," says Daniele Migani, Founder and CEO of XY. "Moving to the new London offices in St. James's Square only two years after inaugurating our local presence in the UK is in line with the new position established in the market and a clear statement of our commitment to serve an expanding basis of clients in the years to come."

As a global player leveraging disruptive technologies and pioneer of estate orchestration technologies (EO-Tech), XY addresses the needs of ultra-high net worth individuals, large organizations and governments worldwide who seek unbiased services free from conflict of interest. The absence of conflicts of interest and adherence to scientific methods, combined with a remarkable advantage in terms of proprietary technologies and real-time data-feed from the world's financial institutions, see XY in the position to process information as an independent advisor and referee.

XY's organization has grown relentlessly building on its perfect mix of complementary skills, attracting talented professionals with world-class expertise ranging from science, technology, engineering and mathematics to finance and economics, from strategy consulting to wealth management. The relocation of XY's premises in the UK is part of the group's international expansion program and of the company's drive to establish flagship offices in the world's capitals of finance, including Zurich and New York, with other local offices already operating in four continents.
